Product Description

A very rare cork top coffee table or cocktail table by Paul Frankl for American manufacturer Johnson Furniture Company, circa 1955. The playful cork top features a tear-drop shaped void, which sits atop a highly architectonic walnut base. The form bears similarity to coffee tables by other notable designers such as Jean Royere, Isamu Noguchi, T.H. Robsjohn-Gibbings and Paul Laszlo, Vladimir Kagan. All items ship from High Point, North Carolina.
